THE ST ANNE'S FOUNDATION

Our Foundation Trustees

Governance, stewardship and financial accountability

The Foundation is governed by a fiduciary Board of Trustees, responsible for its management and financial stewardship. Its Constitution provides for four to twelve trustees, including up to four nominees of the College Board.

We are grateful for the time and expertise our trustees contribute across investment management, financial assistance, marketing and donor development.

Jono Matthews | Chairman

Jono is a Partner at Ethos Private Equity and Chief Executive Officer of Ethos Capital, with extensive experience in private equity, corporate finance and investment management across Africa. He brings significant expertise in investment strategy and governance to the Foundation.

Anthony Hewat

Ant is a Chartered Accountant, former management consultant and for 32 years was a principal of private equity funds. He is a former Chairman of the Michaelhouse Board of Governors and chairs its Trusts. He brings valuable experience in independent school governance, institutional leadership and long-term educational sustainability.

Lauren Odell

Lauren is a St Anne's Old Girl, a Chartered Accountant (CA(SA)) and Chief Financial Officer at Eqstra Fleet Management & Logistics. She brings extensive financial management, commercial leadership and strategic planning experience to the Foundation.

Kari Greene

Kari is a St Anne's Old Girl, entrepreneur and property professional with longstanding ties to the KwaZulu-Natal Midlands. With over two decades of real estate experience, she brings commercial insight, marketing expertise and community relationships to the Foundation.

Ipeleng Mkhari

Ipeleng is co-founder and Chief Executive Officer of Motseng Investment Holdings, a diversified investment group with interests in property and infrastructure across Southern Africa. A past president of the South African Property Owners Association, she brings experience in strategic investment, business leadership and corporate governance to the Foundation.

THE ST ANNE'S FOUNDATION

Our Foundation Trustees

Katherine Rattray

Kath is a St Anne's Old Girl and an experienced business director with a background in marketing, management and entrepreneurship. Associated with KR & Co., she brings commercial insight and business development experience to the Foundation.

Tessa Yeowart

Tessa is a St Anne's Old Girl and Chief of Staff at the Centre for Development and Enterprise, with extensive experience in strategic programme development, organisational management and education policy. She holds an MBA from the University of Cape Town.

College Board Representatives | Foundation Trustees

Alison Jackson

Alison is Chair of the Board of Governors at St Anne's, an Old Girl and a past parent. She is a Chartered Accountant (CA(SA)) and a Chartered Principal Executive Officer (CPEO) of retirement funds, with 24 years' experience in the corporate financial services sector. She brings extensive expertise in finance, risk management, retirement fund management and corporate governance.

David Schwegmann

Dave is a senior banking executive with extensive experience in strategic leadership, business transformation and financial services. He has held several senior leadership positions at Nedbank, including Divisional Executive of Consumer Banking, bringing considerable expertise in organisational development, change management and business strategy. He is the Marketing, 150th and Fundraising portfolio lead on the College's Board of Governors.

Nonhlanhla Dakile

Nonhlanhla is a St Anne's Old Girl and entrepreneur with a background in finance, economics, sales and marketing. She is the Stakeholder Engagement portfolio lead on the College's Board of Governors and brings business leadership and strong connections to the St Anne's community.

For further information, contact the Foundation at foundation@stannes.co.za.