Age restriction 12

Frank Adler (Chris Evans) is a single man raising a child prodigy - his spirited young niece Mary (Mckenna Grace). Frank's plans for a normal school life for Mary are foiled when the seven-year-old's mathematical abilities come to the attention of Frank's formidable mother Evelyn (Lindsay Duncan) whose plans for her granddaughter threaten to separate Frank and Mary.

The Miracle Worker

The library has two books about these two incredible women - check the main display!

The famous story of a girl's struggle in the 19th Century to lead a normal life. Helen Keller became deaf and blind before she was two years old, before she had learned to talk. Against great odds, her teacher Anne Sullivan eventually broke through the isolation imposed by a near complete lack of language and taught Helen to read, write and talk. Helen went on to become the first deaf-blind person to earn a bachelor of arts degree, and was an author, lecturer and political activist.
